KEY NEWS OF SAUDI ARABIA

▶ Saudi Arabia tops GCC projects market in Q3: report

In Q3 2025, Saudi Arabia led the GCC's projects market with USD 28.1 bn in contract awards, accounting for 51.3% of regional activity, while total GCC awards fell 27% year-on-year to USD 54.8 bn, with nine-month awards down 30.5% to USD 154.4 bn, according to Kamco Invest. Sectorally, most industries declined, with construction down 62.4% and power 13.3%, while oil and gas grew. Saudi power led with USD 9.8 bn, and notable contracts included an USD 853 mn road project and a USD 167 mn tyre plant, amid a 20% surge in giga-project awards to USD 196 bn reflecting progress in Vision 2030 initiatives. ▶ SARCO, UAE's Go Energy partner on Saudi Arabia's green hydrogen push

Saudi Arabia Refineries Co. (SARCO) has signed a non-binding MoU with UAE-based Go Energy to conduct a joint study and develop a legal framework for a green hydrogen and ammonia project in Saudi Arabia, valid for one year unless extended. The initiative supports the Kingdom's goal of generating 50% of its electricity from renewable sources by 2030 and becoming the world's largest green hydrogen exporter, targeting 1.2 mn tonnes annually. The project aligns with the National Renewable Energy Program to diversify energy sources and reduce fossil fuel reliance, and has no immediate financial impact. Green hydrogen, produced via renewable-powered electrolysis, is key to lowering carbon emissions. This move complements broader energy transition efforts in Saudi Arabia, including the NEOM green hydrogen plant, expected operational by December 2026, and agreements by ACWA Power to export renewable electricity and green hydrogen to Europe, reinforcing the Kingdom's ambition to become a global clean energy hub.

OTHER REGIONAL AND GLOBAL NEWS

▶ Oil little changed amid fading risk premium after Gaza deal

Oil prices were steady in early Asian trade on Friday after a 1% drop in the previous session, as the war risk premium eased following Israel and Hamas's agreement on the first phase of a US-brokered Gaza ceasefire deal. Brent rose 0.1% to USD 65.31 a barrel, while WTI gained 0.2% to USD 61.63. The truce, which includes a halt in fighting, partial Israeli withdrawal, and a hostage-prisoner exchange, shifted market focus back to potential oversupply as OPEC+ moves to unwind production cuts. Despite this, both benchmarks were up about 1.2% for the week. Analysts said the deal reduced geopolitical risk, though concerns remain over a possible US government shutdown weighing on oil demand.

▶ Gold poised for eighth weekly rise on firm safe-haven demand

Gold prices edged higher on Friday and were set for an eighth consecutive weekly gain, supported by geopolitical and economic uncertainty and expectations of US Federal Reserve rate cuts. Spot gold rose 0.1% to USD 3,977.87 per ounce, up 2.3% for the week, while US futures gained 0.5% to USD 3,992.40. Fed official John Williams signaled openness to more rate cuts, with markets pricing in 25-basis-point reductions in October and December. Political instability in Japan and France and the ongoing US government shutdown fueled safe-haven demand, helping gold hit a record high of USD 4,059.05 earlier in the week. Meanwhile, silver rose 1.2% to USD 49.70, platinum gained 0.4% to USD 1,625.30, and palladium added 1% to USD 1,426.

▶ Chinese coast guard rams and damages a Philippine vessel off an island in the South China Sea

A Chinese coast guard ship fired a water cannon and rammed the Philippine fisheries vessel BRP Datu Pagbuaya near Thitu Island in the disputed South China Sea, causing minor damage but no injuries, according to the Philippine Coast Guard. The incident occurred as the Philippine vessels were anchored to support local fishermen, while China accused them of entering its claimed waters near Sandy Cay and ignored warnings. The Philippines condemned the aggressive maneuvers, reaffirming its commitment to defend its territory, while the US expressed support for Manila. China reiterated its sovereignty claims over virtually the entire South China Sea, blaming the Philippines for the confrontation and warning against further "infringement and harassment." Thitu, one of the Spratly Islands, lies near Chinese artificial island Subi, highlighting the region's ongoing tensions.

FX Commentary

The Japanese yen stabilized at 151.61 per dollar but was set for its steepest weekly drop in a year, down nearly 3.5%, as markets worried that the Bank of Japan may not raise rates this year following fiscal dove Sanae Takaichi's surprise victory in party leadership. The euro hovered near two-month lows at USD 1.16, heading for its sharpest weekly decline in 11 months due to political turmoil in France and difficulty passing a budget amid economic slowdown in Germany. The US dollar index rose to 99.39, near a two-month high, and was on course for a 1.7% weekly gain, as traders awaited clarity on the Federal Reserve's rate path amid the ongoing US government shutdown. The Australian dollar edged up to USD 0.65, sterling remained near USD 1.34, and the New Zealand dollar held at USD 0.57 after a 50-bps rate cut by its central bank.
